8. If there are two adults and one child (2-11 years old) joining the tour, the child can be charged at the child rate and treated as not occupying a separate bed, sharing a room with two adults. If there are two adults and two children joining the tour, the price will be charged as four adults. One adult and one child will share a twin room separately, and the children will have their own beds. The price charged will be the same as that for adults.
9. For individuals under the age of 18, pregnant women, or seniors aged 70 or above, they must be accompanied by at least one adult relative who is under the age of 65 in order to participate in the tour. Additionally, pregnant women or seniors aged 70 or above must sign a "Participation Agreement and Waiver of Liability" at the time of registration for the protection of both parties. We also recommend that pregnant women or seniors purchase appropriate insurance products before joining the tour.
10. Once a reservation has been made, full payment must be done no later than 30 days before the departure date. Failure to pay on time and in full may result in cancellation of the reservation by the company.
11. After successful registration through the system, please send the relevant group tickets to the customers via the system. However, the ticket must be based on the ones provided by our company. If the travel agency creates its own ticket, any additional information or terms added or deleted will not be related to our company. Our company reserves the right to pursue all responsibilities.
12. Our company reserves the right to accept or reject any registration, without the need to provide any reasons or explanations.
13. Please provide accurate email address and mobile phone number when registering, so that we can reply and send confirmation messages in the future.
14. For customers who need to purchase air tickets to join the tour, please purchase the air tickets only after receiving the "booking confirmation".

15. The "tour voucher" contains information related to the tour, including an "emergency phone number". Please be sure to print and bring it with you. It must be presented for verification when boarding.
16. The itinerary sequence may vary depending on the departure date, but the attractions remain the same.
17. For this tour, children under the age of 8 may be required to use a safety seat. Please make sure to indicate the child' s age in the remarks section at the time of booking so that we can prepare in advance. Any violations and fines incurred due to failure to provide this information in advance will be the sole responsibility of the guest. Thank you for your understanding.
18. Important Notice: During the trip, if a participant accidentally or intentionally damages any facilities on the tour bus, in the hotel, or in any related areas, they will be fully responsible for all consequences and must compensate for any related losses. In cases of more serious damage, there is a possibility of facing criminal charges under local law. We kindly remind all participants to take good care of public property and fully enjoy the pleasures of the journey!
19. Our company reserves the right, when necessary for the smooth operation of the tour, to transfer guests from their original coach to another vehicle during the journey and to assign a different tour leader and driver to provide services.
20. Many attractions in the itinerary require participants to have basic health conditions. Guests with physical or mental disabilities, or with limited mobility, should contact our company in advance before booking to obtain information on relevant policies. Wheelchairs are not permitted on the tour.

Liability Terms：Switzerland Scenic 7 days Tour

1. Our company only acts as an agent for airlines, hotels, transportation or other travel agencies to provide services. In case of loss of personal property, accidental death, or additional expenses incurred due to natural disasters, accidents, mechanical malfunctions, transportation delays, fire, strikes, wars, political instability, uncontrollable events, and government regulation changes, our company and its agents are not responsible and bear no liability to the tour members or customers listed in the itinerary or individual bookings.
2. The transportation and hotels used by our company, such as planes, ships, trains, or buses, have different regulations to ensure passenger safety and prevent luggage loss, and each agency is responsible for their own rules. In case of luggage loss, accidental injury, or property damage, our company is not responsible and bears no liability, and the resolution will be based on the regulations of each agency involved.
3. In case of unforeseeable circumstances such as adverse weather conditions, strikes, typhoons, lost documents, unexpected hotel occupancy, flight cancellations or delays, political instability, epidemic or any other force majeure event that requires changes or cancellations of any travel program, accommodation or transportation, the company shall have the full authority to handle the situation accordingly. In such cases, participants shall not use the forementioned circumstances as an excuse to oppose or demand compensation. Participants shall be responsible for any losses or additional costs incurred as a result of the event.
4. Participants must abide by the laws and regulations of each country and are strictly prohibited from carrying private goods for profit or illegal items. Entry and exit regulations are based on individual countries, and if a person is refused to enter any countries by customs officers for any personal reasons, the company shall not be responsible for any resulting losses or expenses incurred during the rest of the journey. The participant shall bear all costs related to transportation and accommodation and shall not hold the company responsible.
5. In any situations and any locations, if theft occurs and results in the loss of money and personal belongings, our company, drivers, tour leaders, and guides will not be held responsibilities. It is the responsibility of each participant to safeguard their own personal belongings and identification documents.
6. If a participant is late and unable to catch the scheduled flight or bus, our company will not hold responsibilities and will not provide any refunds.
7. Due to different bus models, we may not be able to accommodate participants using wheelchairs. Therefore, it is regret to inform that we cannot accept wheelchair users to join our tour. (Note: For "private group tours", please inform us before receiving a quote.)
8. Our company reserves the right to publicly display participant's portraits taken during the tour. We will capture activities and moments during the trip for promotional purposes.

Tour rules and regulation notices: Switzerland Scenic 7 days Tour

1. As the space for luggage on the tour bus is limited, each passenger can only carry one piece of luggage with them (luggage not exceeding 23 KG, with the sum of three sides not exceeding 158 cm). If a passenger carries more than one piece of luggage (if there is enough space in the luggage compartment), an additional € 5 will be charged as porter service fee per luggage per day. Thank you for your understanding and sorry for any inconvenience that may occurred.
2. European tours are different from other countries in the world. Most tourist attractions cannot be reached directly by tour buses and tourists will be required to walk to the attractions. If a passenger has limited mobility, they may have to wait on the bus at some attractions and cannot visit some attractions together with the group. Loss of attractions cannot be used as a reason to request compensation or refunds. Please pay attention and think about it thoroughly before joining the tour. Once you have registered and confirmed your participation, it also means that you accept our company's terms and conditions.

3. The driver and tour leader serve the participants wholeheartedly, providing explanations of attractions, taking care of all aspects of the tour, and working hard. Please show your appreciation by giving them a tip before the end of the trip. According to European customs, each participant should give a basic tip of € 10 per day to the driver and tour leader.
4. Please present your tour ticket for boarding at the designated assembly point on time. The latecomers will not be waited, and the tour fee will not be refunded if he/she could not catch the bus. Our company is not responsible for any consequences. In case of emergencies, please call the emergency phone number provided.
5. Participants are responsible for bringing and carrying valid travel documents (passport) and visas with a validity period of at least six months from the departure date. In any case or for any reason, if the participant is refused to enter any countries by the immigration authorities (customs), our company is not responsible, and any losses incurred are the responsibility of the participant. The tour fee will not be refunded.
6. Please avoid bringing valuable items and precious jewelry. Valuables and documents should be carried with you at all times and kept under your own supervision. Our company, drivers, and tour leaders are not responsible for any loss that may occur.
7. Tour members must abide by the laws and regulations of each country, and it is strictly prohibited to carry private goods for profit and illegal items. Smoking is prohibited in all public places and indoor buildings (including hotel rooms) in Europe, with fines of up to thousands of euros, so please abide by the law. In recent years, some famous buildings (attractions) in Europe have promulgated legislations banning visitors from sitting on the ground to rest or eat, which is not only considered rude but may also be prosecuted.
8. Meals and admission tickets during the trip are at your own expense. Please refer to the consumption guide to calculate and bring a suitable amount of local currency for use on the way. Please bring your own private medicines if necessary.
9. In any case or for personal reasons, if a tour member requests to leave on their own, return individually or leave the tour midway, our company will assist in making arrangements. However, our company will not be responsible for any indirect or direct cost losses incurred due to delays in transportation or other circumstances that result in missing the pre-arranged itinerary or accommodation.
10. Any tour participants who intentionally obstruct the tour leader's work, endanger the safety of others, or affect the normal activities and interests of the group, the tour leader has the right to cancel their tour qualification, request the participant to leave the group depending on the specific situation or with the consent of the majority of the tour participants. The remaining balance of the unfinished part of the journey will not be refunded, and any actions taken by the participant after leaving the group will not be related to the company.
11. If the flight or bus is delayed due to a malfunction or traffic congestion, resulting in itinerary changes or canceled programs, tour participants may not use the forementioned circumstances as an excuse to oppose or withdraw from the tour. In case of bad weather, strikes, or unexpected accidents that cause delays in the itinerary, tour participants may not demand compensation or refund of tour fees.
12. The itinerary is for reference purposes only. The company will make appropriate arrangements and adjustments based on the actual situation regarding the tour program, accommodation location, and other issues. The possibility of canceling programs due to the closure of attractions or local holidays cannot be ruled out. Tour participants are expected to accept and may not object.
13. The tourist transportation and hotels used by our company, such as airplanes, ships, trains, or buses, have various regulations for the safety of participants and issues such as lost luggage, accidents, and property damage. These situations will be handled based on the regulations established by each institution and will not be related to our company. We recommend that participants purchase travel insurance and luggage insurance on their own. For details on how to purchase insurance, please contact the travel agency you registered with or our company directly.
14. Due to the fact that the bus model may not be able to accommodate wheelchairs, we regret that we cannot accept applications from those who use wheelchairs to join the tour. (Note: "Private tour groups" need to be notified before the quotation is made)
15. The temperature difference between day and night in Europe is substantial, the annual average temperature exceeds 30 degrees for less than two months, and European countries have strong environmental protection awareness. Therefore, hotels in Europe may not have standard air conditioning.
16. Our company has the right to publish the portrait of participants for promotion purposes. We will take photos of the activities during the trip
17. If the number of participants is small, GEG travel has the right to combine guests of different languages on the same tour bus.
18. Pets and animals are not allowed on any tour itinerary. Thank you for your understanding.

Smart Tips

1. G Tour: No sharing room service!! NO pre- and post- hotel services provided. NO pickup and drop off service.
2. G Tour: Min. 2 persons, guaranteed departure. Each tour has different itinerary! Please refer to "Booking Details".
3. When taking the train to Jungfrau, you need to transfer to a "special mountain climbing train" at the halfway station. Please follow the tour guide to transfer trains and take photos on the return trip.
4. Jungfrau's weather can be checked at www.jungfrau.ch.
5. When traveling to the snowy mountains in the summer, adults generally only need to wear sweaters, long pants, and windbreakers!
6. * Elderly people should bring more warm clothing to maintain their warmth. * Children and young people are advised to bring an extra pair of pants for playing in the snow in case they get wet and need to change!
7. The weather at the mountain top changes quickly and drastically, but don't worry, if it's cold, you can stay in the observation restaurant, have a cup of hot coffee, get warm, replenish your energy, and then go out again.
8. Please prepare antiskid sneakers since the road surface of mountain cities are made of cobblestone. Please bring antiskid sneakers with you.
9. If you want to order goEUgo – Green Line or Blue Line tour right after the Switzerland tour, please make sure that your goEUgo tour begins from the day your Switzerland tour ends and remark: join the tour from Lucerne.
10. Important Note: Tour leader and hotel details will be sent 1 week before departure date via email. And a QR code will be sent to you to join the WeChat group chat.
11. Euros are basically usable in Switzerland! Most cash registers in Swiss shops can directly exchange euros, but the change given back will be in Swiss francs. Of course, this excludes street vendors.
12. Note: Connection Plan: Gtour(Swiss tour) + GoEuGo Green line+ transfer service (Gtour Rome Hotel) + Gtour(Southern Italy tour). When booking "Southern Italy tour", this connection plan is considerable! Please send your inquiries to info@gegeu.com
13. Note: This tour requires registration at least 31 days before the departure date (min 2 people) to guarantee departure.
14. Note: For registrations within 30 days of the departure date, a second confirmation from our company is required to guarantee departure.
15. This tour is based on a 2-person group. Single travelers need to pay the difference and stay in a basic single room. We cannot guarantee that single travelers can share a room.
16. Note: A single traveler may not be able to join the tour! For better assurance, please check before booking if you are traveling alone.
