Liability Terms: East America Classic Tour 6 day

1. Our company only acts as an agent for airlines, hotels, transportation or other travel agencies to provide services. In case of loss of personal property, accidental death, or additional expenses incurred due to natural disasters, accidents, mechanical malfunctions, transportation delays, fire, strikes, wars, political instability, uncontrollable events, and government regulation changes, our company and its agents are not responsible and bear no liability to the tour members or customers listed in the itinerary or individual bookings.
2. The transportation and hotels used by our company, such as planes, ships, trains, or buses, have different regulations to ensure passenger safety and prevent luggage loss, and each agency is responsible for their own rules. In case of luggage loss, accidental injury, or property damage, our company is not responsible and bears no liability, and the resolution will be based on the regulations of each agency involved.
3. In case of unforeseeable circumstances such as adverse weather conditions, strikes, typhoons, lost documents, unexpected hotel occupancy, flight cancellations or delays, political instability, epidemic or any other force majeure event that requires changes or cancellations of any travel program, accommodation or transportation, the company shall have the full authority to handle the situation accordingly. In such cases, participants shall not use the forementioned circumstances as an excuse to oppose or demand compensation. Participants shall be responsible for any losses or additional costs incurred as a result of the event.
4. Participants must abide by the laws and regulations of each country and are strictly prohibited from carrying private goods for profit or illegal items. Entry and exit regulations are based on individual countries, and if a person is refused to enter any countries by customs officers for any personal reasons, the company shall not be responsible for any resulting losses or expenses incurred during the rest of the journey. The participant shall bear all costs related to transportation and accommodation and shall not hold the company responsible.
5. In any situations and any locations, if theft occurs and results in the loss of money and personal belongings, our company, drivers, tour leaders, and guides will not be held responsibilities. It is the responsibility of each participant to safeguard their own personal belongings and identification documents.
6. If a participant is late and unable to catch the scheduled flight or bus, our company will not hold responsibilities and will not provide any refunds.
7. Due to different bus models, we may not be able to accommodate participants using wheelchairs. Therefore, it is regret to inform that we cannot accept wheelchair users to join our tour. (Note: For "private group tours", please inform us before receiving a quote.)
8. Our company reserves the right to publicly display participant's portraits taken during the tour. We will capture activities and moments during the trip for promotional purposes.

Tour rules and regulation notices: East America Classic Tour 6 day

1. As the space for luggage on the tour bus is limited, each passenger can only carry one piece of luggage with them (luggage not exceeding 23 KG, with the sum of three sides not exceeding 158 cm). If a passenger carries more than one piece of luggage (if there is enough space in the luggage compartment), an additional € 5 will be charged as porter service fee per luggage per day. Thank you for your understanding and sorry for any inconvenience that may occurred.
2. America tours are different from other countries in the world. Most tourist attractions cannot be reached directly by tour buses and tourists will be required to walk to the attractions. If a passenger has limited mobility, they may have to wait on the bus and cannot visit some attractions together with the group. Loss of attractions cannot be used as a reason to request compensation or refunds. Please pay attention and think about it thoroughly before joining the tour. Once you have registered and confirmed your participation, it also means that you accept our company's terms and conditions.
3. The driver and tour leader serve the participants wholeheartedly, providing explanations of attractions, taking care of all aspects of the tour, and working hard. Please show your appreciation by giving them a tip before the end of the trip. According to America customs, each participant should give a basic tip of $15 per day to the driver and tour leader.
4. Please present your tour ticket when boarding at the designated assembly point on time. The latecomers will not be waited, and the tour fee will not be refunded if he/she could not catch the bus. Our company is not responsible for any consequences. In case of emergencies, please call the emergency phone number provided.
5. Participants are responsible for bringing and carrying valid travel documents (passport) and visas with a validity period of at least six months from the departure date. In any case or for any reason, if the participant is refused to enter any countries by the immigration authorities (customs), our company is not responsible, and any losses incurred are the responsibility of the participant. The tour fee will not be refunded.
6. Please avoid bringing valuable items and precious jewelry. Valuables and documents should be carried with you at all times and kept under your own supervision. Our company, drivers, and tour leaders are not responsible for any loss that may occur.
7. Tour members must abide by the laws and regulations of each country, and it is strictly prohibited to carry private goods for profit and illegal items. Smoking is prohibited in all public places and indoor buildings (including hotel rooms) in Europe, with fines of up to thousands of euros, so please abide by the law. In recent years, some famous buildings (attractions) in Europe & USA have promulgated legislations banning visitors from sitting on the ground to rest or eat, which is not only considered rude but may also be prosecuted.
8. Meals and admission tickets during the trip are at your own expense. Please refer to the consumption guide to calculate and bring a suitable amount of local currency for use on the way. Please bring your own private medicines if necessary.
9. In any case or for personal reasons, if a tour member requests to leave on their own, return individually or leave the tour midway, our company will assist in making arrangements. However, our company will not be responsible for any indirect or direct cost losses incurred due to delays in transportation or other circumstances that result in missing the pre-arranged itinerary or accommodation.
10. Any tour participants who intentionally obstruct the tour leader's work, endanger the safety of others, or affect the normal activities and interests of the group, the tour leader has the right to cancel their tour qualification, request the participant to leave the group depending on the specific situation or with the consent of the majority of the tour participants. The remaining balance of the unfinished part of the journey will not be refunded, and any actions taken by the participant after leaving the group will not be related to the company.
11. If the flight or bus is delayed due to a malfunction or traffic congestion, resulting in itinerary changes or canceled programs, tour participants may not use the forementioned circumstances as an excuse to oppose or withdraw from the tour. In case of bad weather, strikes, or unexpected accidents that cause delays in the itinerary, tour participants may not demand compensation or refund of tour fees.
12. The itinerary is for reference purposes only. The company will make appropriate arrangements and adjustments based on the actual situation regarding the tour program, accommodation location, and other issues. The possibility of canceling programs due to the closure of attractions or local holidays cannot be ruled out. Tour participants are expected to accept and may not object.
13. The tourist transportation and hotels used by our company, such as airplanes, ships, trains, or buses, have various regulations for the safety of participants and issues such as lost luggage, accidents, and property damage. These situations will be handled based on the regulations established by each institution and will not be related to our company. We recommend that participants purchase travel insurance and luggage insurance on their own. For details on how to purchase insurance, please contact the travel agency you registered with or our company directly.
14. Due to the fact that the bus model may not be able to accommodate wheelchairs, we regret that we cannot accept applications from those who use wheelchairs to join the tour. (Note: "Private tour groups" need to be notified before the quotation is made)
15. Our company has the right to publish the portrait of participants for promotion purposes. We will take photos of the activities during the trip
16. GEGeu has the right to combine guests of different languages on the same bus if the number of participants is small.
17. GEGeu may combine English, Chinese and Vietnamese speaking tours on the same bus in case the tour group is too small. Please respect others in your tour group.
18. Pets and animals are not allowed on any tour itinerary. Thank you for your understanding.

【Today Mandatory Fee €50.00】Explore iconic landmarks in NYC : Time Square, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Brooklyn Bridge, Wall Street and 9/11 Memorial

Today, we will explore the heart of New York—Manhattan. Our journey begins in Midtown at Times Square, where you' ll feel the artistic pulse of Broadway and the financial energy of the NASDAQ Stock Exchange. From there, we' ll stroll along Broadway Avenue, passing Central Park, and stop at St. Patrick' s Cathedral on Fifth Avenue.
Before heading downtown, we' ll pause by the Hudson River for a visit to the Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum, where the mighty USS Intrepid aircraft carrier—now retired—stands as a bold reminder of America' s Cold War military strength.
After lunch, we' ll continue south along the Hudson River, passing through the Greenwich Village area as we enter Lower Manhattan. Our first stop is Wall Street, where we' ll walk through the "Canyon of Heroes," gaze up at the Gothic spire of Trinity Church, and stand at the crossroads of financial power between the Morgan Building, the New York Stock Exchange, and Federal Hall. Don' t forget to snap photos with the famous Fearless Girl and the iconic Charging Bull.
Next, we' ll pass by Battery Park and take a cruise on the East River to catch a close-up view of the Statue of Liberty—one of America' s most beloved symbols and a beacon of hope for generations chasing the American Dream.
After the cruise, we' ll enjoy a scenic walk across the Brooklyn Bridge, where the magnificent views of the East River and the Manhattan skyline come together in a breathtaking panorama.Our final stops include a visit to the 9/11 Memorial, where two reflecting pools stand as the city' s silent tears, commemorating a tragedy forever etched into America' s memory. Just next door stands the One World Observatory, the tallest building in the United States.
